College students travel across the country in three green RVs and interview prominent individuals in all professions as they seek to answer the age-old question, “What do you want to do with your life?” In the first episode, the students meet the CEO of Volcum Clothing and a music director.

EDUCATION (CONT.)

P.O.V. "The Hobart Shakespeareans"

9/9/05 11:00 PM 60 MINUTES DOCUMENTARY

This documentary profiles inspiring elementary school teacher Rae Esquith by exploring his unique and effective methods of positive education offered to his fifth-grade class at Hobart Elementary school in Los Angeles. Esquith leads his class through an uncompromising curriculum of English, mathematics, geography and literature and inspires them with cross-country trips to learn history firsthand. At the end of the semester, every student performs in a full-length Shakespeare play with advice from actors Ian McKellen and Michael York. Despite language barriers and poverty, these "Hobart Shakespeareans" move on to attend outstanding colleges, motivated by a teacher honored with a National Medal of Arts.

WHYY'S broadcast schedule consists of children's programming Monday-Friday from 7:00 AM-5:00 PM for ages 6 months to teenagers.

WHYY'S Home College Service is broadcast seven morning from 1:00-6:00 AM. Viewers can earn college credits at home.
